

Code of Conduct

Document Ref: LEG-POL-009 | Effective: September 2026

At TechV-Flash, our reputation is built on trust, integrity, and ethical business practices. This Code of Conduct outlines the expected professional behavior for all employees, officers, and directors representing the company.

1. Professional Behavior & Respect

1.1 Mutual Respect

Employees must treat colleagues, clients, and vendors with dignity and respect. TechV-Flash maintains a zero-tolerance policy for bullying, intimidation, or exclusionary behavior in physical or virtual workspaces.

1.2 Public Representation

When attending conferences, client sites, or posting on professional social media (e.g., LinkedIn), employees must conduct themselves in a manner that upholds the company's reputation. Derogatory remarks about competitors or clients are strictly prohibited.

2. Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest arises when an employee's personal interests interfere, or appear to interfere, with the best interests of TechV-Flash.

2.1 Outside Employment & Moonlighting

Full-time employees are prohibited from engaging in secondary employment (moonlighting) or consulting work that competes with TechV-Flash or interferes with their primary job duties without prior written approval from HR and the CEO.

2.2 Financial Interests

Employees must not hold a significant financial interest (over 5% ownership) in any of TechV-Flash's competitors, suppliers, or clients unless fully disclosed to and approved by the Legal Department.

3. Anti-Bribery & Gifts

3.1 Acceptance of Gifts

Employees may not accept gifts, favors, or entertainment from clients or vendors that could influence business decisions. Occasional, nominal gifts (e.g., festive sweets, corporate swag) valued under 2,000 INR are permissible.

3.2 Prohibition of Bribes

TechV-Flash strictly complies with the Prevention of Corruption Act. Employees must never offer, promise, authorize, or accept bribes, kickbacks, or any other improper payments to secure business advantages or government approvals.

4. Protection of Company Assets

4.1 Proper Use

Company assets, including funds, equipment, software, and physical facilities, must be used solely for legitimate business purposes.

4.2 Intellectual Property

All code, designs, documents, and concepts developed by an employee during their tenure at TechV-Flash remain the exclusive intellectual property of the company.

5. Whistleblower & Non-Retaliation Policy

Reporting Violations:

If you suspect a violation of this Code, you have a duty to report it. Reports can be made anonymously via the internal portal or by emailing ethics@techv-flash.com.

Non-Retaliation: TechV-Flash strictly prohibits retaliation against any employee who, in good faith, reports a suspected violation or participates in an ethics investigation.

6. Political & Charitable Contributions

6.1 Personal Political Involvement

Employees may participate in political processes in their personal capacity outside work hours and off company premises. However, employees must not use TechV-Flash funds, facilities, or properties to support any political party or candidate.

6.2 Corporate Contributions

All corporate charitable contributions must be routed through the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) committee and require final approval from the Board of Directors to ensure legal compliance.

7. Insider Trading & Market Abuse

7.1 Material Non-Public Information (MNPI)

Employees who have access to confidential, price-sensitive corporate records (e.g., pending merger deals, financial results prior to public disclosure) are strictly prohibited from trading in company shares or tipping others to trade.

7.2 Trading Windows

Designated key employees are subject to strict trading window restrictions, typically closing 15 days before the end of each fiscal quarter and opening 48 hours after financial results are published.

7.3 Table of Insider Trading Window Closures

Financial Event / Period	Window Closure Commencement	Window Re-opening Date	Designated Restricted Persons
Q1 Financial Results (Apr - Jun)	June 15th	48 Hours post Board approval announcement	All directors, finance teams, and executive staff
Q2 Financial Results (Jul - Sep)	September 15th	48 Hours post Board approval announcement	All directors, finance teams, and executive staff
Q3 Financial Results (Oct - Dec)	December 15th	48 Hours post Board approval announcement	All directors, finance teams, and executive staff

Q4 Annual Audited Results (Jan - Mar)	March 15th	48 Hours post Board approval announcement	All directors, finance teams, and executive staff
---------------------------------------	------------	---	---

8. Fair Competition & Anti-Trust Laws

8.1 Interactions with Competitors

Employees must not enter into agreements or discussions with competitors to fix product pricing, divide market segments, rig client bids, or boycott specific suppliers.

8.2 Trade Association Participation

When attending technology trade associations, employees must leave immediately if competitors begin discussing unannounced pricing structures, bidding strategies, or resource allocations.

9. Media Relations & Public Disclosure

9.1 Communication Protocol

To ensure accurate information dissemination, only designated spokespersons authorized by the CEO are permitted to speak to journalists or issue press statements on behalf of TechV-Flash.

9.2 Speaking at External Conferences

Employees invited to speak at public forums, panel discussions, or academic events as representatives of the company must submit their presentation slide deck to the PR team for approval at least 7 days before the event.

9.3 Table of Media Request Handling Protocols

Inquiry Source	Request Source	Required Internal Routing Target	Standard Response SLA
Financial performance & audits	Business News Reporters / Analysts	Chief Financial Officer (CFO) & CEO office	24 Hours
Product launch & tech disclosures	Tech Blogs / PR agencies	VP of Product & Marketing Director	48 Hours
Crisis incidents or legal disputes	General Print & Digital Media	Data Protection Officer & Chief Legal Counsel	Immediate (Within 2 Hours)

10. Equal Employment & Harassment-Free Workspace

10.1 Diversity & Equal Opportunity

Employment decisions (hiring, training, promotions) are based entirely on qualification and performance. TechV-Flash will not tolerate any discrimination based on race, gender, religion, or orientation.

10.2 Respectful Physical & Virtual Workspaces

All communications via Slack, email, or client tools must remain professional. Using offensive language or posting inappropriate images is classified as a code of conduct violation.

11. Health, Safety & Environmental Integrity

11.1 Green Workplace Commitment

Employees are requested to support sustainability efforts by minimizing paper printing, switching off unused workspace lighting, and separating wet and dry waste at trash stations.

11.2 E-Waste Disposal Standards

Obsolete computers, monitors, mobile phones, and cables must not be thrown in general waste bins. All hardware disposal must be processed via the IT Admin's certified e-waste vendor.

12. Ethical AI & Technology Usage

12.1 Generative AI Tool Protocols

Code development using GenAI tools must only be performed on approved enterprise-licensed platforms. Pasting proprietary source code, client databases, or PII into public AI models is strictly prohibited.

12.2 Open Source Compliance

Before integrating open-source packages containing restrictive licensing (e.g., GPL) into proprietary software codebases, developers must obtain clearance from the engineering architecture committee.

12.3 Table of Gift & Hospitality Approval Thresholds

Gift/Hospitality Value	Relationship Type	Required Action	Final Approving Authority
